Dear Alexander,

On behalf of the Embassy of Saudi Arabia, I wanted to share with you a Press Statement on Yemen issued on October 20 by United Nations Security Council President Martin Kimani of Kenya:

Security Council Press Statement on Yemen | Meetings Coverage and Press Releases

The Press Statement condemns the Houthis' cross-border attacks against Saudi Arabia, calls for an immediate end to the Houthi escalation in Marib, notes the ceasefire initiative proposed by Saudi Arabia in March 2021, and highlights the Houthis' responsibility for the environmental threat presented by the Safer oil tanker.

Please let me know if you have any questions.

Best,
Ivan

Dear Jon,

On behalf of the Embassy of Saudi Arabia, I wanted to share with you a Press Statement on Yemen issued on October 20 by United Nations Security Council President Martin Kimani of Kenya:

Security Council Press Statement on Yemen | Meetings Coverage and Press Releases

The Press Statement condemns the Houthis' cross-border attacks against Saudi Arabia, calls for an immediate end to the Houthi escalation in Marib, notes the ceasefire initiative proposed by Saudi Arabia in March 2021, and highlights the Houthis' responsibility for the environmental threat presented by the Safer oil tanker.

Please let me know if you have any questions.

All my best,

Norm

Dear Michelle,

On behalf of the Embassy of Saudi Arabia, I wanted to share with you a Press Statement on Yemen issued on October 20 by United Nations Security Council President Martin Kimani of Kenya:

Security Council Press Statement on Yemen | Meetings Coverage and Press Releases

The Press Statement condemns the Houthis' cross-border attacks against Saudi Arabia, calls for an immediate end to the Houthi escalation in Marib, notes the ceasefire initiative proposed by Saudi Arabia in March 2021, and highlights the Houthis' responsibility for the environmental threat presented by the Safer oil tanker.

Please let me know if you have any questions.

Best,
Ivan
